fraud and duplicity, "and nothing but praise of Mr. Hayes is now heard." That refers, of course, to the circle in which the plot for stealing the presidency was hatched and consummated. Hayes has broken his faith plighted to the Confederate brigadiers, and put Tyner at the head of civil-service reform in the Post-Office Department. What more could Morton himself demand? The expediency of making a pretense of Gentlemen's Calf Boots, $2.50, worth $4; Gentlemen's Sewed Calf Boots, $3, worth $6; Gentlemen's Hand-Sewed Calf Boots, $4, cheap at fulfilling the pledges of the campaign cannot be questioned. INGENIOUS ATTEMPT TO ROB A BANK-A TIMELY DISCOVERY—HASTY FLIGHT OF THE ROBBERS.-Philadelphia, March 26.-At about 11 o'clock this morning a watchman of the Consolidation National Bank, of this city, upon going to the directors' room, on the third floor of the building, discovered a large hole through the wall into the next building. An examination disclosed the TO COUNTY TREASURERS, COMMIS-SION MERCHANTS. AND OTHERS.—FOR SALE, a large MARVIN'S SAFE, fire-proof. with burglar-proof vault: laside measurement, 50 inches by 40 inches, and 16 inches deep. Apply to "SAFE," office of this paper. fact that a well-planned attempt to rob the bank had been in progress for some time past, and had been frustrated only by the accidental return of one of the watchmen after leaving the bank yesterday.

It appears that on February 26th the premises No. 327 north Third street, adjoining the bank, were rented by persons who until to-morrow. represented that they intended opening a wood- and willow-ware establishment, but desired first to make some alterations in the building. The real object of the parties was not suspected, and no attention was paid to what pounding was done by them. It was evidently their intention to enter and rob the bank yesterday, Sunday being the only time when but one watchman was on duty in the building. The night-watch-man left the bank at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and the burglars probably the directors' room at that entered time, and prepared to descend and gag the remaining watchman. The night-watchman, however, after leaving the bank, discovered that he had forgotten his pocketbook, and returned for it. Finding the door closed, he rang the gong. This probably frightened the robbers away, as they were evidently prepared to battle with but one man. A fine collection of burglars' tools, together with powder, nitro-glycerine, etc., were strewn over the floor of the adjoining building, and various articles of clothing and disguises found scattered all the way down the stairs to the front door, indicating that the flight of the thieves had been a hurried one. The police as yet have no clue as to the identity of the thieves. SEWERS.-Very valuable information on the subject of sewer-gases was communicated by Dr. Frankland at the February meet-Stocker at 15c. worth 25c.; 75 pleces extra fine and fine at 16c. worth 30c. Just received from auction at [mh 19-eod] 5ULIUS MEYER'S.

We have made a chemical examination of DAVID F. CLEMMER'S MOUNTAIN RYE WHISKEY, using for the purpose samples selected by ourselves from ten barrels belonging to lots received by Messrs. George A. HUNDLEY & Co. at different times, and of ages varying from one to four-ten months. We have subjected this whiskey to the most searching tests. It has stood them all perfectly nothing of a deleterious nature being found in it. It can therefore be confidently recommended for its purity and excellence to those who use whiskey as a beverage, while for medicinal purposes it is all that can be desired.
